

HANDOUT:

National Standards for Parent/Family Involvement Programs
Standard I:	Communicating—Communication between home and school is regular, two-way, and meaningful.
Standard II:	Parenting—Parenting skills are promoted and supported.
Standard III:	Student Learning—Parents play an integral role in assisting student learning.
Standard IV:	Volunteering—Parents are welcome in the school, and their support and assistance are sought.
Standard V:	School Decision Making and Advocacy—Parents are full partners in the decisions that affect children and families.
Standard VI:	Collaborating with Community—Community resources are used to strengthen schools, families, and student learning.

Source: National PTA